Appointing a Club Welfare Officer (CWO)

Safeguarding children is everyone's responsibility – including The FA's, as the game's governing body in this country.

It is FA policy that, to be able to affiliate for the 2009-10 season, every club which runs an under-18 team must have a Club Welfare Officer who has:

- an 'accepted' CRB check via The FA CRB Unit
- completed The FA Safeguarding Children workshop (formerly known as Child protection and best practice workshop)

From the start of the 2008 - 2009 Season Welfare Officers were required to have an 'accepted' or as a minimum an 'in progress' enhanced CRB check via The FA CRB Unit; so clubs already affiliated in the 2008 - 2009 Season will already have complied with this requirement.

And going forwards...

From the start of the 2010-2011 Season your Welfare Officer must have:

- an 'accepted' CRB check via The FA CRB Unit
- completed The FA Safeguarding Children workshop
- completed The FA Welfare Officer workshop

Key Roles and Responsibilities

The Club Welfare Officer has two key responsibilities these are:

1. To be clear about the clubs responsibilities when running activities for children and young people. This involves:
 - ensuring these responsibilities are well understood by others
 - working with the Youth League Welfare Officer
 - working with the County FA (CFA) Welfare Officer
 - helping to develop best-practice processes and promoting The FA's Respect Programme

2. To help club personnel understand what their 'duty of care' towards children and young people actually means and entails on a day-to-day basis

It is essential that the Club Welfare Officer is perceived as being approachable, having a child centred approach and the ability to maintain this perspective when carrying out their role.

The type of person that would make a good Club Welfare Officer is someone who:

- always puts children's welfare first
- is a good communicator
- has a common sense approach
- is willing to learn and seek advice
- is over the age of 18

Where to start

- Make it known amongst your club's members including parents/carers that you need to appoint a Welfare Officer onto the committee
- Provide all members including parents/carers with the relevant information about this role
- Find out if anyone involved with the club or who is known by someone in the club has any professional child protection expertise, you may have someone with a family member who is or was a police officer, teacher or social worker that might be willing to take on the role
- Ensure you have a fair and open recruitment process in line with your club constitution, you may wish to advertise the role on your club website, through quarterly/monthly communications you already have in place
- Before appointing your Welfare Officer ensure that you have considered their appropriateness for this role by checking them against The FA's Safeguarding Children Person Specification and Suitability Checklist detailed below:
